Linette Padron

Linette Padron is the national administrative associate in our Kansas City headquarters. She is a graduate of the John Jay College of Criminal Justice in New York, with 12 years of experience as an executive assistant and office manager for organizations ranging from a talent agency to law firms to Fox News Corp. Ms. Padron also served in the U.S. Army (from 1996-1998) and the Army Reserve (from 1998-2003), and participated in search and rescue at Ground Zero immediately following the 9/11 terrorist attacks. See her television interview on New York 1 at: www.uepkauffman.org/video.aspx

She has since volunteered extensively for the Wounded Warrior Project.
